LEAPS and Your Plan

Session 6 · 75 minutes

> The client leaves with a one-page investing plan in their own words, including what they will do when markets fall. LEAPS come first and briefly; the plan is the graduation.

THE CLIENT LEAVES WITH

- What a LEAPS is, and its three risks
- A one-page investing plan
- Their rules for a falling market

BEFORE THE SESSION

- Have every earlier workbook and template open: M1-T1, M2, M3-M4 and M6 workbooks
- Have a live option chain open for one LEAPS example

Coaching standard: teach how things work; the client makes every decision. Never recommend a specific security, place a trade, log into their accounts or promise a return.

20–30	Risks	Where LEAPS go wrong, the checklist
30–62	Your plan	Build the one-page plan
62–70	Falling markets	Write their rules for a bad year
70–75	Graduation	Next steps, check-ins and the Circle

Script

7–20 · LEAPS. “A LEAPS is a call option that expires a year or more away. Bought deep in the money, it moves almost like the stock, for a fraction of the cost of 100 shares.” Show one on a live chain: strike well below today’s price, delta around 0.80, more than a year out.

20–30 · Risks. “Three things to respect. It can expire worthless. It loses a little value every day. And because it’s cheaper than shares, it’s easy to buy too many.” Walk the checklist.

30–62 · The plan. Fill the one-page plan line by line, pulling from each earlier workbook. Use their words, not yours. Read it back in full at the end.

62–70 · Falling markets. “Let’s decide now, while you’re calm, what you’ll do when your portfolio is down 30%.” Write their answers into the last rows of the plan.

70–75 · Graduation. “You now have a budget, an account map, a way to judge funds, an options plan and a written investing plan. That’s more than most people ever build.” Offer monthly check-ins (30 minutes, $20 a month, Circle included) or three free months in the Melius Circle. Send M8-E1 the same day and ask for a Google review.

Subject: You did it: your investing plan

Hi [Name],

Congratulations on finishing all six sessions. Your one-page plan is attached, with your budget and workbooks. Keep the plan where you’ll see it, and read it before any big decision.

Two ways to keep going:
- Monthly check-ins: a 30-minute review each month of what your funds paid and what changed. $20 a month, and it includes the Melius Circle.
- The Melius Circle: my private WhatsApp community, with set Q&A times each week. Your first three months are free.

Reply to this email and I’ll set either one up. If the coaching helped, a short Google review would mean a lot: [review link]

Better every year,
Obi
